MIRRA's record reflects that the narcotic offense for which he received the 20-year sentence involved 28 co-defendants and all were engaged in a massive conspiracy to import heroin into the United States from Canada and then distribute same throughout the United States with the central base of this operation being New York City. During the course of the existence of this conspiracy which included years 1956 through 1960, it is estimated that the conspiracy was responsible for importing into the United States approximately 600 kilograms of heroin annually.

"Two witnesses linked jailed hoodlum Anthony (Tony) Mirra to the Stable, a bar at 135 E. 56th Street, in a hearing yesterday conducted by the State Liquor Authority to determine whether the license of the East Side ginmill should be revoked.

"The SLA suspects that Mirra is the real operator of the place, against SLA rules, although the liquor license is in the name of Chick's Showcase Inc., whose president is Pasquale D. Costanzo.

"Cigaret Man Testifies

"A young cigaret machine installer, whose name was kept secret, testified before SLA Commissioner Alfred De F. Licato that Mirra was the man with whom he dealt in making arrangements to put a cigaret machine in the bar. The installer said he paid Mirra $1,200 for a five-year concession in the ginmill.

"Ernest M. Maier, a contractor, of Rockville Center, L.I., said he also dealt with Mirra and others, including Costanzo, in converting the premises of the bar from a coffee shop in 1958. Maier testified: 'They made it clear they acted as agents, not as owners.'
